

1. A. Where did the Greek civilization first start?(2 marks)

B. How large in area did this civilization cover?(2 marks)

2. A. Please describe the Greek Islands?(4 marks)

B. Where was good farmland located?(3 marks)

3. What is a Mediterranean climate and what influences it?(3 marks)

4. Greek's earliest settlers found the hilly country good for what?(2 marks)

5. In the good patches of land, what were the main crops grown?(3 marks)

6. What were Greek islands rich with and what existed in good quantities that was good for building?(3 marks)

7. A. What sort of things did they mine?(4 marks)

B. What did they use these valuable materials for?(2 marks)

8. A. What was Greece's greatest asset?(1 mark)

B. What did its coast and many natural harbours provide?(2 marks)

A Civilization of City-States

9. A. Why was farmland access isolated and often limited?(2 marks)

B. Because of what was discussed in A, how did early Greek settlements develop?(3 marks)

C. What was a "hinterland" and what did it provide?(2 marks)

10. A. What are "City States"?(4 marks)

B. What were the main Greek city states?(5 marks)

C. What were the largest and most influential city states?(2 marks)

D. What problem did each city state have in reference to each other?(2 marks)

11. Why is Greek civilization referred to as "one" while they were mostly separate city states?(6 marks)

12. Greek "city states" sometimes fought each other, but also did what?(1 mark)

13. A. What did Greeks call themselves?(1 mark)

B. What did they call their country?(1 mark)

C. What civilization called them Greek?(1 mark)

D. What did Greeks call all others who were not Greeks and what does this word mean?(2 marks)

Traders and Warriors pg. 154

14. A. Most city states had a limited amount of farmland. As the city-states grew, what did they need more of?(2 marks)

B. In order to supply their growing population, what did they have to do?(2 marks)

15. What were colonies and what did they do to survive?(2 marks)

16. What was often imported from colonies and countries to the east?(2 marks)

17. What did they often trade in exchange?(4 marks)

18. A. Who gave the Mediterranean its name and what does it mean?(2 marks)

B. Why do you think the Romans gave the Mediterranean Sea its name?(1 mark)